RIVER RIDGE BACK PACK TRAIL

1. The trail is marked by red arrows, orange plates, or orange bands around the trees. Markers must be used in conjunction with the map for guidance. Total length of the trail is approximately 11 miles. Markers may not be visible if walking the trail in reverse.
2. The trail begins at the Lorna J. Konsis Visitor Center on the Old Barn Trail. From here, the trail follows the Deer Meadow Trail to Sycamore Hollow Campus. From the campus follow the Willow Creek Trail and Primitive Loop. Water is available here except during the winter months. The first campsite is available at the Group Campgrounds. The second campsite is located at the east camp on the extreme east end of the trail. There are no facilities for water at either camp, but there are restrooms. Winding through the Duffin Nature Area, the Back Pack Trail intersects the Big Woods Trail and leads to the entrance drive road.
3. After crossing the road, the trail follows the southern boundary of the park, past the Doris Westfall Prairie, and back to the Lorna J Konsis Visitor Center.
